Facilitating Small Groups

Tuesday 2\textsuperscript{nd} March 2010

9.00am – 4.30pm

Aims
To develop participants’ facilitation skills in the context of small group teaching with medical undergraduates

Learning Outcomes
Increased understanding of the roles of a facilitator
Increased understanding of key theories in the management of groups
Learning derived from sharing good practice and experience of running groups
Improved group facilitation skills developed in a safe learning environment

METHODS
The day will involve a participatory and interactive approach to learning

FACILITATORS
Kevin Galbraith
Lecturer in Medical Education

Faith Hill
Director
Division of Medical Education

VENUE
Countess Mountbatten House
Moorgreen Hospital
West End Southampton
SO30 3JB

Electonic application form available at www.som.soton.ac.uk/research/medicaleducation/facilities/medu/development/courseform.asp or email hpb@southampton.ac.uk