Less interface...More integration

Dr. Nadia Chambers
Clinical Director for Long Term Conditions
South Central Strategic Health Authority

“NHS South Central – Improving health and alleviating the causes of poor health for the benefit of patients, the public and taxpayer alike in Oxfordshire, Buckinghamshire, Berkshire, Hampshire and the Isle of Wight”
• Strategic Health Authority Commitment
  – Reducing variability in standards of care
  – Promoting evidence based practice through the implementation of evidence based pathways
  – Support Trusts in implementing proven initiatives to encourage spread across the SHA – this applies to workforce too
  – Linking up clinicians and commissioners

‘Making it easier for someone living with Long Term Conditions to stay well and in control – even when life gets complicated’
An appropriately skilled and integrated workforce can:

Have support in the right place – when it’s needed – to make life easier:

• Access
• Information
• Signposting

“NHS South Central – Improving health and alleviating the causes of poor health for the benefit of patients, the public and taxpayer alike in Oxfordshire, Buckinghamshire, Berkshire, Hampshire and the Isle of Wight”
An appropriately skilled and integrated workforce can:
Help people to stay in control through:
• Supporting a person to manage their condition themselves
• Providing a range of options
• Supporting a person to make sense of the personalisation agenda

“NHS South Central – Improving health and alleviating the causes of poor health for the benefit of patients, the public and taxpayer alike in Oxfordshire, Buckinghamshire, Berkshire, Hampshire and the Isle of Wight”
An appropriately skilled and integrated workforce can:

Help someone to stay well by:

- Supporting lifestyle changes
- Spotting early signs of someone not coping – and escalating appropriately
- Providing the extra help that is needed to simply get on with life

“NHS South Central – Improving health and alleviating the causes of poor health for the benefit of patients, the public and taxpayer alike in Oxfordshire, Buckinghamshire, Berkshire, Hampshire and the Isle of Wight”
An appropriately skilled and integrated workforce can:
Help someone to manage complexity through
• The application of Health AND Social care expertise
• Making anticipatory care planning a real and reliable activity –not just a paper exercise

So…what is stopping you from Taking the Lead? – across organisations:

- What incentives do you have in place to motivate staff to ‘do the right thing?’

- How can we better align
  - Organisations
  - Services
  - Commissioning

“NHS South Central – Improving health and alleviating the causes of poor health for the benefit of patients, the public and taxpayer alike in Oxfordshire, Buckinghamshire, Berkshire, Hampshire and the Isle of Wight”
‘We’re up to something!’

- Developing skills for integrated health and social care teams
- Developing case management models – beyond Kaiser
- Getting these into commissioning and operating frameworks.
