Foundation Programmes

The Two year Foundation Programme at UHS comprises a series of placements in a variety of specialties and healthcare settings as well as the opportunity for some doctors to experience working with academic teams. Learning objectives for each stage will be specific and focused on demonstration of clinical competencies. The learning objectives for Foundation Year One (FY1) are set by the General Medical Council. At the end of the first year of the Foundation Programme doctors are able to register with the General Medical Council (GMC) if their practice has achieved the required standard.

The Foundation years encompass team working, the use of evidence and data, time management, communication and IT skills, although the main focus of training will be the assessment and management of the acutely ill patient.

Foundation Year 2 (F2) rotations have been created to allow access to specialties that may not necessarily have been offered up previously to junior doctors at this level, such as Max Fax and General Practice.

Both years will have a dedicated Educational Supervisor.

Day to day advice and support is always available from the Foundation Programme Office.

Allocation process
