The Foundation Trust and Hospital

Basingstoke and North Hampshire NHS Foundation Trust (BNHFT) has maintained its strong performance since authorisation in December 2006 as a Foundation Trust, including meeting national targets.

The Foundation Trust is responsible for Basingstoke and North Hampshire Hospital, in Basingstoke, which has around 450 general and acute beds supporting a full range of emergency and planned patient services. It also provides outpatient and support services in the community hospitals in Alton and Bordon, and community staff who work with pregnant women, children and families.

In 2009/10 the Hospital treated 49,764 inpatients and 220,070 outpatients. The Emergency department dealt with 44,409 people. The Maternity unit supervised the delivery of 2,924 babies.
Wessex Deanery is part of the South Central Strategic Health Authority and provides postgraduate medical and dental education for Hampshire, Isle of Wight, and the States of Jersey, and for Dorset and South Wiltshire on behalf of the South West Strategic Health Authority.

BNHFT provides a full range of high quality general hospital services and in addition have a small number of specialist/tertiary services:

- Specialist cancer surgery centre: providing highly specialist, tertiary treatment for specific cancers including pseudomyxoma (a rare abdominal cancer), colorectal cancer and secondary liver cancer. The Foundation Trust is now the largest centre worldwide for the treatment of pseudomyxoma.

- Regional haemophilia service: an integrated service that supports patients with this incurable, genetic disease from diagnosis onwards, focused on preventing complications and hospital admissions.

The Foundation Trust prides itself on its excellent infection control record. We achieved the lowest MRSA rate in England for a hospital of our size.

Monitor Risk Ratings
- Monitor Finance risk rating of 4 and Governance rating of Green
- BNHFT are fully registered with the Care Quality Commission. In October 2009 it rated us Good for Quality of Services and Excellent for Financial Management
