A conference to raise awareness among mental health professionals, voluntary sector workers and the public about mental health issues in black & minority ethnic communities focusing on refugees and asylum seekers and mental health in later life.

Eligible for 6 CPD points from the Royal College of Psychiatrists

Topics

- Mental health in later life
  Dr Faisal Parvez—Pennine Care NHS Foundation Trust

- Refugees and asylum seekers
  Dr Khatidja Chantler—University of Central Lancashire

- Recovery in mental health
  Mr Tom McAlpine—Moodswings Network

- Personal experiences: mental health voices
  Choice of two workshops in the afternoon

Cost: £75 private sector/professional and £50 students/voluntary sector

Lunch will be provided

For further enquiries or to book your place please contact MC-UK on 0161 7131892 or email contact@mc-uk.org
MC-UK, 680 Burnage Lane, Manchester, M19 1NA